

YOU CAN HELP! VOLUNTEER TODAY!

Throughout the Tulsa area, volunteers are making a difference in the lives of young children during those all-important early years.

You or someone you know, could help by

- Reading books
- Hugging babies
- Being a mentor or advocate
- Presenting puppet shows
- Exercising with preschoolers
- Singing songs
- Teaching art
- Volunteering in programs that help new parents
- Just being a friend to children and their families

There are also many short-term projects where groups can work together.

The Tulsa Volunteer Center is here to help you, your family, your company, or a group of friends find great ways to volunteer with young children. More than 350 nonprofit agencies throughout the Tulsa area have listed their needs for volunteers with the Center. We can guide you to the agencies which need your skills and talents for the kinds of volunteer work you would like to do, during the time that you have to give, in locations that are convenient for you.

To find out more, please call the Tulsa Volunteer Center at 585-5551 (M-F, 8:30-5), or visit us online at www.tulsavolunteercenter.org. (The Center is a program of the Community Service Council of Greater Tulsa, a United Way agency.)
