

THE CENTER FOR COMMUNITY SCHOOL STRATEGIES

helps schools implement strategies from the Community School model that align resources and partnerships between schools, families and neighborhoods. These strategies create networks of support for the whole child and lead to student success. Our focus areas include:

- Whole Child Education
- Expanded Learning
- Early Childhood Development
- Positive School Culture
- Family & Community Engagement
- Results-based Partnerships

HOW WE WORK WITH SCHOOLS

Our expert team provides consultation and training to schools in Oklahoma and surrounding regions, helping them design, implement, and sustain Community School strategies that meet the unique needs of their communities. Our services include:

Community Schools 101

$100/hour, including travel time and mileage. (2 hours)

Custom Training

$125/hour, including travel time and mileage. (2-6 hours.)

This service may include onsite observation and/or consultation and a written report.

Program Evaluation

$500 per class plus travel/mileage. Our team will use the Weikart PQA Assessment Tool and provide you with a written report on the quality of your youth programming.

Follow-up training with your staff is available.

WHO WE ARE The Center for Community School Strategies is a program of the Community Service Council in Tulsa and an affiliate of the National Center for Community Schools of the Children's Aid Society in New York City.

FOR MORE INFO Please contact Erin Velez at (918) 699-4244 or evelez@csctulsa.org, or visit csctulsa.org/communityschools

THE CENTER FOR COMMUNITY SCHOOL STRATEGIES

helps schools implement strategies from the Community School model that align resources and partnerships between schools, families and neighborhoods. These strategies create networks of support for the whole child and lead to student success. Our focus areas include:

- Whole Child Education
- Expanded Learning
- Early Childhood Development
- Positive School Culture
- Family & Community Engagement
- Results-based Partnerships

HOW WE WORK WITH SCHOOLS

Our expert team provides consultation and training to schools in Oklahoma and surrounding regions, helping them design, implement, and sustain Community School strategies that meet the unique needs of their communities. Our services include:

Community Schools 101

$100/hour, including travel time and mileage. (2 hours)

Custom Training

$125/hour, including travel time and mileage. (2-6 hours.)

This service may include onsite observation and/or consultation and a written report.

Program Evaluation

$500 per class plus travel/mileage. Our team will use the Weikart PQA Assessment Tool and provide you with a written report on the quality of your youth programming.

Follow-up training with your staff is available.

WHO WE ARE The Center for Community School Strategies is a program of the Community Service Council in Tulsa and an affiliate of the National Center for Community Schools of the Children's Aid Society in New York City.

FOR MORE INFO Please contact Erin Velez at (918) 699-4244 or evelez@csctulsa.org, or visit csctulsa.org/communityschools